03 MASS HOUSING & COMMERCIAL COMPLEX

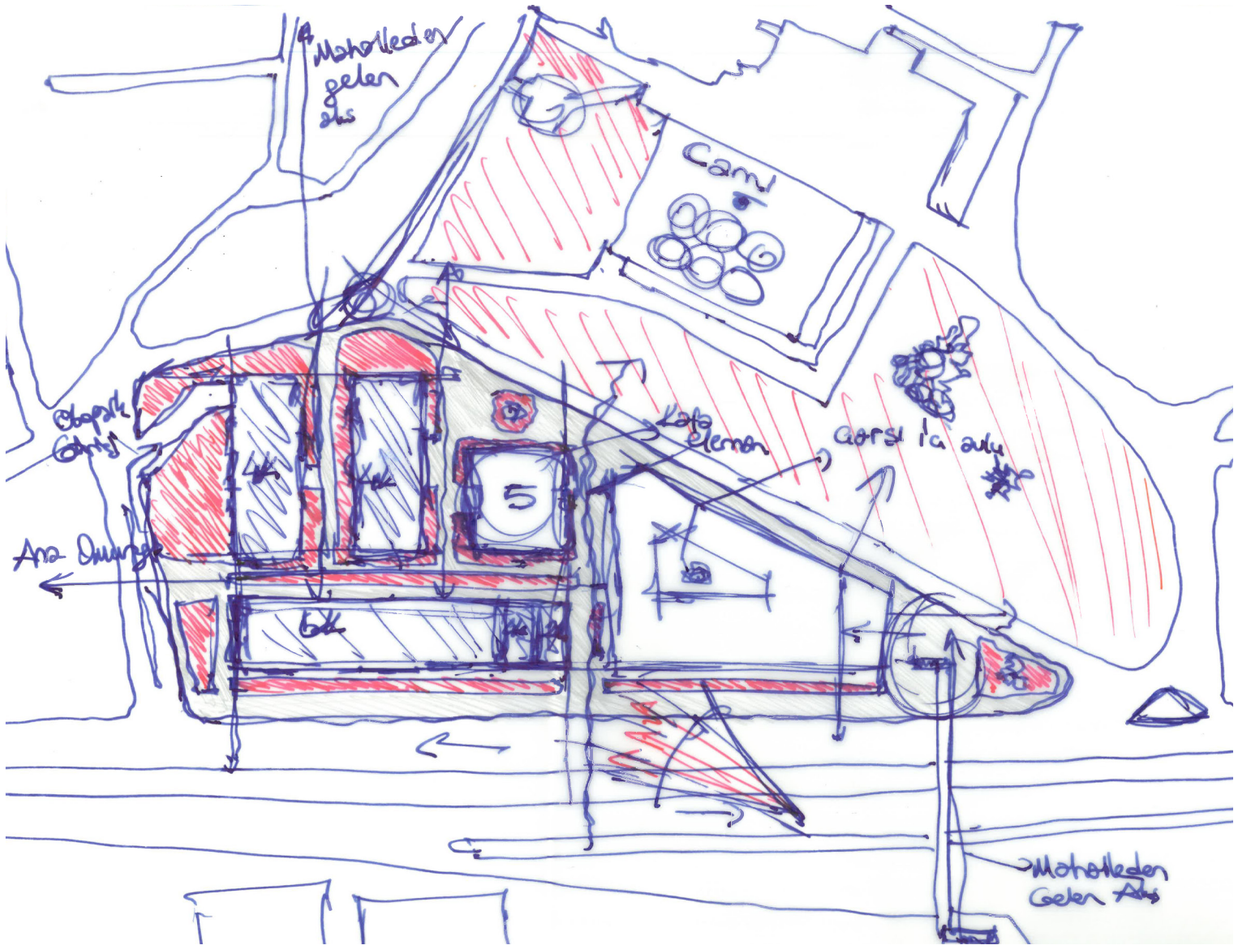

Residential Architecture – Istanbul, 2018

Site Planning & Design Approach

The project integrates residential buildings and a commercial complex within a connected urban setting. Residential access is organized through internal circulation routes, while the commercial area addresses the surrounding public realm. Landscaped open spaces establish transitions between private residential functions and public activity.

Initial Site Concept

Developed Site Concept