

Ground Floor Plan | 1:100

The ground floor establishes a network of residential, communal and service spaces across the housing clusters. Shared and semi-public areas are positioned along the main pedestrian routes, creating a gradual transition between private dwellings and the surrounding landscape.

