Architectural Design & Technical Documentation

Project Overview

The project presents a single-storey prefabricated steel structure designed to accommodate office, laboratory and support functions. Its modular construction system integrates a lightweight steel framework, prefabricated wall panels and a pitched roof, emphasizing structural efficiency, functional organization and construction detailing.

Roof Plan

Ground Floor Plan