

Sketch Studies

Early hand-drawn studies exploring massing, proportions, and façade articulation, informing the project's later architectural development.

Final exterior visualization emphasizing massing, façade articulation, materials, and daylight.

