

First Floor Plan | 1:100

The first floor continues the residential organization established at ground level, accommodating the upper levels of the housing clusters while maintaining their relationship with shared outdoor spaces, pedestrian routes and the surrounding landscape.

