

Third Floor Plan | 1:100

The third floor illustrates the upper-level organization of the housing clusters, highlighting the changing building footprints and the distribution of residential units across the site.

